Saint Rose of Lima

August 23 1586 - 1617

Patron: Against vanity; embroiderers; florists; gardeners; needle workers; people ridiculed or misunderstood for their piety; for the resolution of family quarrels

She was the "first blossom of sanctity that South America gave to the world" born to Spanish immigrants to the New World. This South American Saint's real name was Isabel, but she was such a beautiful baby that she was called Rose, and that name remained. A beautiful girl and devoted daughter, Rose had no desire to be admired and she was so devoted to her vow of chastity that she used pepper and lye to ruin her complexion so she would not be attractive. Already as a 5-year-old child Rose vowed her innocence to God. While still a young girl, she practiced mortifications and fasts that exceeded ordinary discretion; during all of Lent she ate no bread, but subsisted on five citron seeds a day. In addition, she suffered repeated attacks from the devil, painful bodily ailments, and from her family, scoldings and calumnies. All this she accepted serenely, remarking that she was treated better than she deserved. Rose lived and meditated in a garden, raising vegetables and making embroidered items to sell to support her family and help the other poor. She became known as the founder of social work in Peru. St. Rose worked hard to support her poor parents and she humbly obeyed them, except when they tried to get her to marry. That she would not do. Her love of Jesus was so great that when she talked about Him, her face glowed and her eyes sparkled.

She became a Dominican tertiary in 1606. Rose had many temptations from the devil, and there were also many times when she had to suffer a feeling of terrible loneliness and sadness, for God seemed far away. She suffered from assorted physical and mental ailments yet she cheerfully offered all these troubles to Him. In fact, in her last long, painful sickness, this heroic young woman used to pray: "Lord, increase my sufferings, and with them increase Your love in my heart." She was a mystic & visionary. She received invisible stigmata. For 15 years she patiently endured the severest spiritual abandonment and aridity. In reward came heavenly joys, the comforting companionship of her holy guardian angel and of the Blessed Virgin. She expiated the evils perpetrated by the conquerors of the land in their lust for gold. For many her life was a silent sermon of penance.

August 24, 1617, proved to be the day "on which the paradise of her heavenly Bridegroom unlocked itself to her." Many miracles followed her death. She was beatified by Clement IX, in 1667, and canonized in 1671 by Clement X, the first American to be so honored. Pope Clement X stated in the bull of canonization: "Since the discovery of Peru no missionary has arisen who effected a similar popular zeal for the practice of penance."

Excerpted from The Church's Year of Grace, Pius Parsch

Symbols: Crown of roses and thorns; needle and thimble; spiked crown; iron chain; Anchor Holy Infant; roses. Often Portrayed As: Dominican tertiary wearing or holding roses; Dominican tertiary accompanied by the Holy Infant.

Our Sunday Offering

St. Mary's Chapel & the Campus Ministry mainly depends upon the generous support of all who join with us in the celebration of the Lord's presence in the Eucharist, which really means thanksgiving. What we offer to God through our donations is also a sign of our thanksgiving to God for his generosity. Without your help and support, our Chapel and Campus Ministry cannot function. Please be generous as God is generous to you in many ways. "God loves a cheerful giver."

St. Mary's is not a traditional parish. We must rely on financial support from persons who understand the very important role of campus ministry in the nurture of Catholic youth. We are a dynamic growing ministry and need your support. Consider a 1 to 4 year financial commitment through our Living Faith Society. Call the office at 936-564-0661, talk to our staff— Fr. Denzil, Michael, Jodi, or Kim or go to our website at sfacatholic.net.

Thank you for your generous support!

The Precepts of the Church

Some older Catholics will recall hearing about the Precepts of The Church, but they aren't discussed much anymore. Despite the lack of publicity, they still exist and Catholics are obligated to follow them. Simply put, the Precepts of the Church are the bare minimum that you must do in order to be in good standing. Only doing these would be like having a goal of only making a D in all of your classes. These precepts should not be viewed as a goal to aspire toward, but rather as a starting point. If we desire to become closer to Christ, following the Precepts of the Church will give us a good foundation to build upon.

Precept #1

You shall attend Mass on Sundays and on holy days of obligation and rest from servile labor – Sadly, there are some Catholics that don't feel the need to attend Mass on Sunday or holy days of obligation, which is not only a violation of this precept, but can be a mortal sin. For those who do attend Mass faithfully, it is still possible to get caught up in the trap of using The Lord's Day to catch up on chores and go shopping. While at times this is necessary, we should prayerfully consider the activities that occupy our Sundays. Obviously, there are some people whose jobs necessitate working on Sunday and the Church understands. The main intent of this precept is to ensure that we obey the commandment to "keep holy The Lord's Day".

Precept #2

You shall confess your sins at least once a year – While the Church encourages frequent confession, all those conscious of mortal sin are required to receive the Sacrament of Confession at least once each year, and must receive the Sacrament of Confession before they may approach to receive Holy Communion.

Precept #3

You shall receive the Sacrament of the Eucharist at least during the Easter season – Catholics are encouraged to receive The Body and Blood of Jesus as often as possible, but this precept binds us to do so "during the Easter season". This minimal requirement helps us to appreciate the importance of Christ's rising from the dead and urges us to receive His Body and Blood during the joyous Easter season.

Precept #4

You shall observe the days of fasting and abstinence established by the Church – This one sounds simple, but many Catholics ignore it. The Church prescribes mandatory fasting and abstinence in order to help us share in the suffering of Christ. When compared to the excruciating pain suffered by Our Lord, abstaining from meat or fasting from food is a small sacrifice to make. Our human nature causes us to flee from any form of discomfort, so it really is a blessing that the Church helps us with this matter. The Church recognizes that most of us would not choose to voluntarily deprive ourselves, so they assist us with this precept. Days of mandatory fasting in the United States are Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. Days of mandatory abstinence from meat are the Ash Wednesday, the Fridays of Lent, and Good Friday. Some act of penance is also required on all the Fridays of the year, and abstaining from meat on all Fridays of the year is recommended.

Precept #5

You shall help to provide for the needs of the Church – Certainly not a popular topic with many Catholics, but providing for the temporal and financial needs of the Church is a requirement that must be obeyed. The Church doesn't mandate any particular amount, but we should be as generous as possible. It's easy to forget that everything we own (including our money) comes from God, but keeping that in mind makes it easier to be generous with His resources. Sacred Scripture speaks of tithing, or giving back 10% to the Lord.
